FAM TRIP & LEISURE WEEKEND

Better than love at first sight

With Bratislava, you don't fall in love at first sight. She's not that kind of city. For a long time she's been living in the shadow of older, more extrovert sisters - Vienna and Budapest - and they've grabbed all the headlines.

But the more you get to know Bratislava, the more she sparkles and beguiles. Soon you find yourself truly fascinated, but in an enduring kind of way.

It's actually way better than love at first sight.

So forget the speed dating - it doesn't work for Bratislava - and join us in August for some quality time in one of Europe's truly great cities. You'll discover how surprisingly close and exceptionally smart it is ...
