Bratislava Region

DEAR GUESTS,

Given our wonderful location, Bratislava could easily be the preferred destination for Business Events not only for Central Europe but for the entire continent. Time and history have gifted our compact city a rich tradition of innovation, multiculturalism and multilingualism leaving us with an open-minded viewpoint and a great focus on creativity, present still today in our architecture, gastronomy and economical pace.

Thanks to all of this, Bratislava attracts more and more leisure and business visitors every year. As Mayor of this beautiful city, it's in my interest to maintain its popularity and keep the numbers growing. This will be done by our on-going support for Business Events, an economic driver that generates direct return on investments of up to 1:10.

The Business Events sector has the highest per capita destination spend but it brings us other benefits too in knowledge exchange, cultivation of niche expertise and increase in commercial opportunities. It's also recognized globally for its sensitivity to issues around sustainability and its focus on cultivating authentic experiences – antidotes to “over-tourism” which is challenging so many destinations these days.

Global urbanism goes hand in hand with Business Events. Both leading congress destinations and smaller cities like Bratislava are aware of the benefits of this segment and are actively working on motivating organizers to choose their destination. Our mission, together with Bratislava Convention Bureau by Bratislava Tourist Board, is to make this process easier and get Bratislava on the top list of European congress destinations. I believe, we are on the right track.

Matúš Vallo

Mayor of Bratislava

DEAR MEETING PLANNERS,

We are happy that the awareness of Bratislava as a modern and safe metropolis is increasing and that anyone who has visited Bratislava has been positively surprised. Meeting organisers state that we are good value for money with hyper accessibility and perceived as an innovative destination.

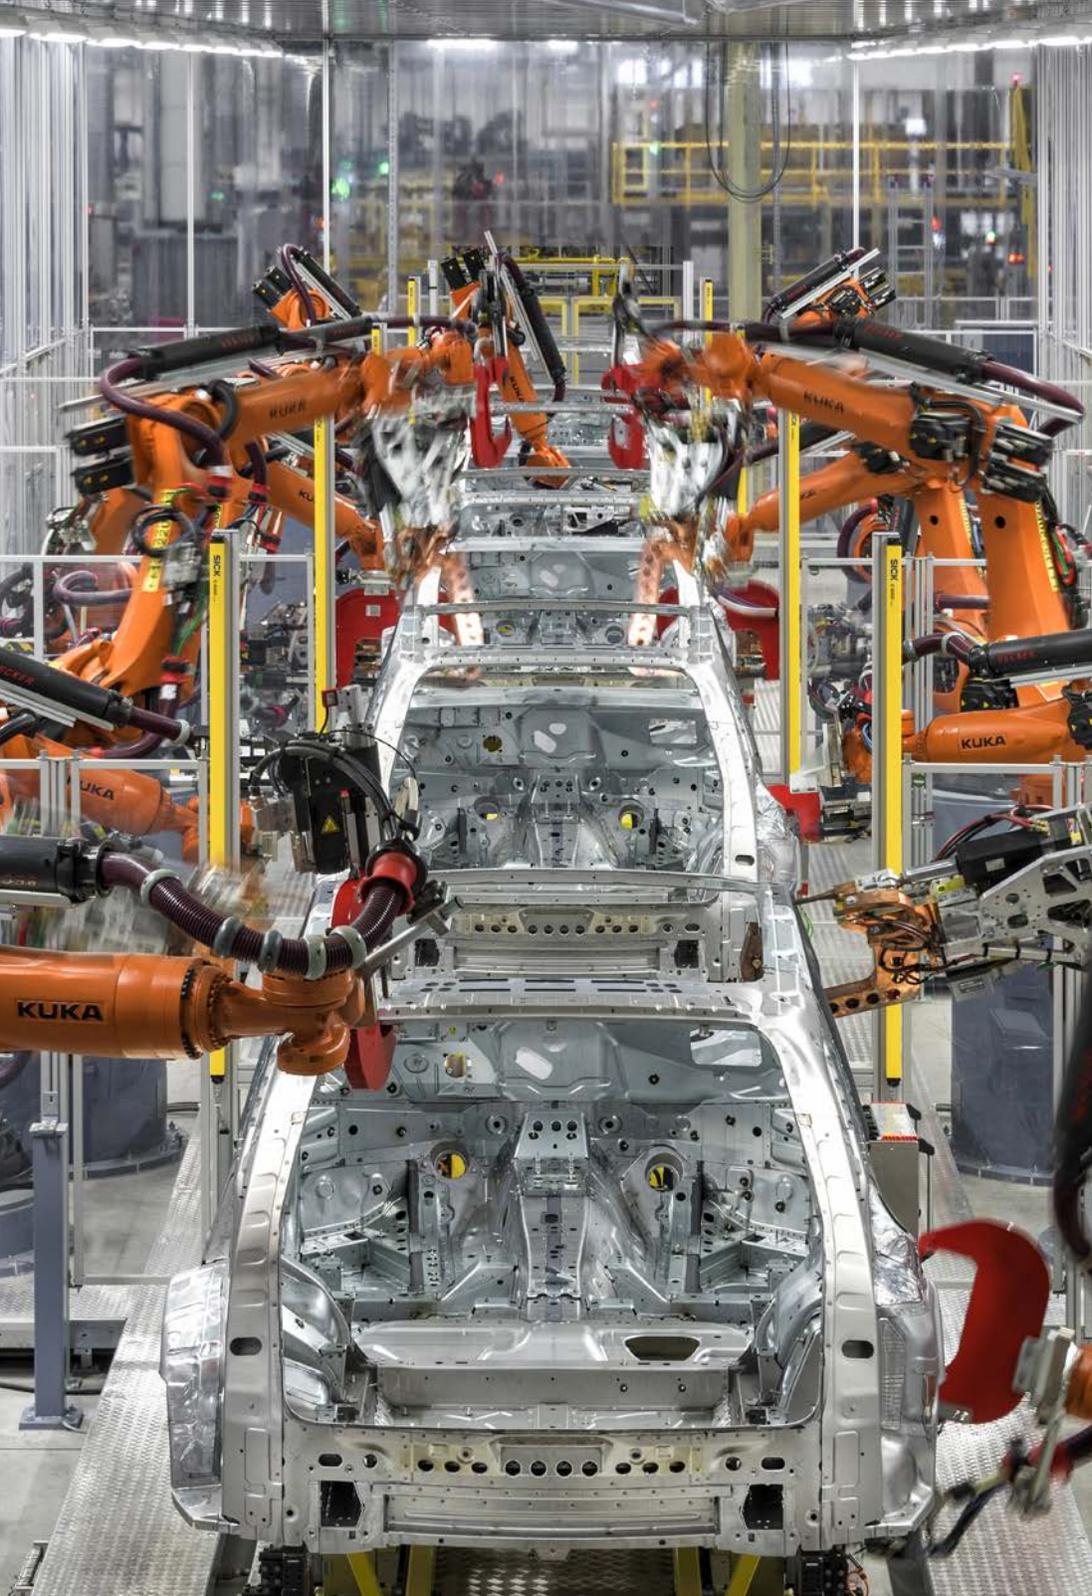

The most important values of Bratislava in attracting business meetings are its accessibility via air, road and river, its uncompromising innovative force present in the fast-growing start-up ecosystem and its world-class research and development. Added to that, its excellence in execution is another key factor that makes it a suitable place for the MICE industry.

Bratislava, as the capital of Slovakia, a modern country in Central Europe, is unique because of its atmosphere and unexpected experiences. In one day, you can manage to visit robotic car assembly lines, drive electric cars through the city, ride speedboats on the River Danube, raft the wild water canal, host a welcome cocktail on a rooftop overlooking the historic centre and enjoy vineyard-located venues for local culinary treats.

It is my greatest wish that people coming for business are satisfied and that they choose Bratislava also as their next leisure destination in the future.

Vladimír Grežo
Chairman of the Board

DEAR COLLEAGUES,

It is my pleasure to hand you this issue of the Meeting Planners Guide. It is the result of the efforts of our young and dynamic team, who have accepted the challenge to put Bratislava on the map of congress tourism.

We do believe that this catalogue of hand-picked hotels, venues, providers and incentive ideas will help you to get an at-a-glance overview of Bratislava's capacities and motivate you to get to know the city personally.

Bratislava's overall infrastructure is suited to medium-sized congresses and the city is known as a guest-friendly one – you can easily master it on foot and thereby enjoy the historical heritage and energy that greets you with full heart and soul.

As Head of the Bratislava Convention Bureau my job is to help you in your efforts to bring business meetings here, so please don't hesitate to contact our office for support and assistance. Please let us know about any business you are conducting with our wonderful DMCs and hotel partners – it's hugely important for us to know that our collective efforts are producing real business results.

Meet you soon in Bratislava,

Dávid Pobjecký

Head of Bratislava Convention Bureau

GENERAL INFORMATION

BRATISLAVA ACCESSIBILITY | INNOVATION | EXECUTION

Surveys of Meetings and Events Professionals constantly rank accessibility as the No. 1 criteria for destination selection and, in this regard, Bratislava is surprisingly close. You can get to Slovakia's capital in 40 minutes from Vienna airport, or in 20 minutes from Bratislava airport to the city centre. And when you're there you'll find yourself in a safe, easy-to-get-around, buzzy, compact city where old town beauty and modern urbanity sit side by side.

WHY BRATISLAVA?

Bratislava is also an exceptionally smart city with a pulsating start-up eco-system and a stellar global reputation as an innovation hub. The sheer size of the market and a population of five million people makes Slovakia a perfect breeding ground for new ideas and testing new products. This is also why Slovaks have one of the fastest internet connections in Europe, letting you surf at 17 Mbps.

Meeting professionals know the importance of exceptional execution. Strategies and plans are always essential but without great execution, they are useless. Without precision, attention to detail and total focus, great strategies go awry and brilliant plans come to nothing. Global automotive leaders like Volkswagen (Volkswagen Slovakia is producing five car makes „under one roof“), Peugeot Citroën, KIA and Jaguar Land Rover have all opted to locate their massive plants around the city because for them precision, attention to detail and focus are non-negotiable. You see exceptional execution is part of the DNA of Bratislava – you can rest assured that your meetings and events are in safe hands!

BRATISLAVA CONVENTION BUREAU

The Bratislava Convention Bureau, as a department of the official Destination Marketing Organization, the Bratislava Tourist Board, is a one-stop-shop for planners of meetings, incentives, congresses and events who are considering Bratislava as a destination. Providing a full range of services for buyers of MICE, BTB also co-ordinates, initiates and manages all aspects concerning the development of MICE and Business Events in our destination.

We provide the following services:

- initial event planning - hotel and venue recommendations
- advisory, local expertise and consultancy for MICE organizers
- active networking platform arrangements of site-inspections based on customer requirements
- promotional materials and digital imagery

The tradition of Slovak Folk Majolica dates from the 16th century. It was introduced to western Slovakia by the Habans, who moved here from Germany and Switzerland. Our company was founded in 1990. Our work incorporates traditional shapes and forms of decoration to preserve the cultural heritage of our region. Are you interested in the production of traditional Folk Majolica? Come and join one of our workshops or tours. We will welcome you in the typical Slovak folk costume of our region. Our training will explain the process and the history of majolica. We will show you how to work with a potter's wheel and how to work with paint and glaze. You will also have a chance to try these skills for yourself.
